To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to recommend Zorah Olivia Quattlebaum for professional photography. I have had the pleasure of hiring and working with Zorah as a freelance photographer to produce content for the top action sports events in the world including ESPN's X Games and Nike's Street League Skateboarding World Championships on FOX Sports.

Zorah's work ethic is impeccable, whether it is putting in long hours, adapting to unforeseen circumstances, or creating solutions on the go, her natural ability to adapt to any situation and work with velocity makes her an ideal candidate for event photography. Her easy going, fun and relatable personality creates an instant connection to her subjects, resulting in beautiful images whether candid or produced.

I am particularly impressed with Zorah's ability to take on new things and excel at them. Her willingness and motivation to work hard and perfect her art is unparalleled. She is constantly looking for ways to improve the quality of her work and does not settle for less. Her positivity and openness makes her one of my favorite photographers to work with.

I have no doubts that if you hire Zorah, you will be pleased with the results. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me via e-mail or phone.

Sincerely,
Kim Woozy
